Equity Policy - Administrative

ANTI-HARASSMENT

It is the policy of the Academy at the Farm, Inc.'s Governing Board to maintain an educational and work environment that is free from discriminatory harassment based on sex/sex-stereotyping, race, color, ethnicity, national origin, religion, marital status, disability, or genetic information that are protected by Federal civil rights laws (hereinafter referred to as unlawful harassment). This commitment applies to all Academy at the Farm, Inc. operations, programs, and activities. All students, administrators, teachers, staff, and all other school personnel share responsibility for avoiding, discouraging, and reporting any form of legally prohibited harassment. This policy applies to legally prohibited conduct occurring on school property, or at another location if such conduct occurs during an activity sponsored by the Academy at the Farm, Inc.'s Governing Board.

For purposes of this policy, "Academy at the Farm, Inc. community" means students, administrators, teachers, staff, as well as Academy at the Farm, Inc.'s Governing Board members, agents, volunteers, contractors, or other persons subject to the control and supervision of the Academy at the Farm, Inc.'s Governing Board.

For purposes of this policy, "third parties" include, but are not limited to, guests and/or visitors on Academy at the Farm, Inc. property (e.g., visiting speakers, participants on opposing athletic teams, parents), vendors doing business with, or seeking to do business with, the Academy at the Farm, Inc.'s Governing Board, and other individuals who come in contact with members of the Academy at the Farm, Inc. community at school-related events/activities (whether on or off Academy at the Farm, Inc. property).

The Academy at the Farm, Inc.'s Governing Board will vigorously enforce its prohibition against all forms of unlawful harassment, including sexual harassment, and encourages those within the Academy at the Farm, Inc. community as well as third parties, who feel aggrieved to seek assistance to rectify such problems. The Academy at the Farm, Inc.'s Governing Board will investigate all allegations of unlawful harassment and in those cases where unlawful harassment is substantiated, the Academy at the Farm, Inc.'s Governing Board will take immediate steps to end the harassment, prevent its reoccurrence, and remedy its effects. Individuals who are found to have engaged in unlawful harassment will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action.

"Harassment" means any threatening, insulting, or dehumanizing gesture, use of data or computer software, or written, verbal or physical conduct directed against a student or school employee that:

- A. places a student or school employee in reasonable fear of harm to his/her person or damage to his/her property;
- B. has the effect of substantially interfering with a student's educational performance, opportunities, or benefits; or
- C. has the effect of substantially disrupting the orderly operation of a school.

Other Violations of the Anti-Harassment Policy

The Academy at the Farm, Inc.'s Governing Board will also take immediate steps to impose disciplinary action on individuals engaging in any of the following prohibited acts:

- A. Retaliating against a person who has made a report or filed a complaint alleging legally prohibited harassment, or who has participated as a witness in a harassment investigation.
- B. Filing a malicious or knowingly false report or complaint of harassment.
- C. Disregarding, failing to investigate adequately, or delaying investigation of allegations of legally prohibited harassment, when responsibility for reporting and/or investigating legally prohibited harassment charges comprises part of one's supervisory duties.

Sexual Harassment

Pursuant to Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972, "sexual harassment" is defined as:

Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature, when:

- A. Submission to such conduct is made either implicitly or explicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment, or status in a class, educational program, or activity;
- B. Submission or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment or educational decisions affecting such individual;
- C. Such conduct has the purpose or effect of interfering with the individual's work or educational performance; of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working, and/or learning environment; or of interfering with one's ability to participate in or benefit from a class or an educational program or activity.

Sexual harassment may involve the behavior of a person of either gender against a person of the same or opposite gender.

Prohibited acts that constitute sexual harassment may take a variety of forms. Examples of the kinds of conduct that may constitute sexual harassment include, but are not limited to:

- A. Unwelcome sexual propositions, invitations, solicitations, and flirtations.

- B. Physical assault.
- C. Threats or insinuations that a person's employment, wages, academic grade, promotion, classroom work or assignments, academic status, participation in athletics or extra-curricular programs or events, or other conditions of employment or education may be adversely affected by not submitting to sexual advances.
- D. Unwelcome verbal expressions of a sexual nature, including graphic sexual commentaries about a person's body, dress, appearance, or sexual activities; the unwelcome use of sexually degrading language, jokes or innuendoes; unwelcome suggestive or insulting sounds or whistles; obscene telephone calls.
- E. Sexually suggestive objects, pictures, videotapes, audio recordings, or literature, placed in the work or educational environment, which may embarrass or offend individuals.
- F. Unwelcome and inappropriate touching, patting, or pinching; obscene gestures.
- G. A pattern of conduct, which can be subtle in nature, that has sexual overtones and is intended to create or has the effect of creating discomfort and/or humiliation to another.
- H. Remarks speculating about a person's sexual activities or sexual history, or remarks about one's own sexual activities or sexual history.
- I. Consensual sexual relationships where such relationship leads to favoritism of a subordinate employee with whom the superior is sexually involved and where such favoritism adversely affects other employees or otherwise creates a hostile work environment.
- J. Inappropriate boundary invasions by an Academy at the Farm, Inc. employee or other adult member of the Academy at the Farm, Inc. community into a student's personal space and personal life.

Not all behavior with sexual connotations constitutes legally prohibited sexual harassment. Conduct must be sufficiently severe, pervasive, and persistent such that it adversely affects an individual's employment or education, or such that it creates a hostile or abusive employment or educational environment.

NOTE: Any member of the Academy at the Farm, Inc. community who engages in sexual conduct with a student may also be guilty of a crime.

Other Unlawful Harassment

Other prohibited unlawful harassment occurs when unwelcome physical, verbal, or nonverbal conduct is based upon an individual's race, color, religion, national origin, disability, etc., and when the conduct has the purpose or effect of interfering with the individual's work or educational performance; of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working, and/or learning environment; or of interfering with one's ability to participate in or benefit from a class or an educational program or activity. Such harassment may occur where conduct is directed at the characteristics of a person's race, color, religion, national origin, disability, etc., such as slurs, nicknames implying stereotypes, epithets, and/or negative references relative to a legally protected class.

Reports and Complaints of Harassing Conduct

Members of the Academy at the Farm, Inc. community, which includes all staff and third parties are encouraged to promptly report incidents of unlawful harassing conduct to an administrator, supervisor or other Academy at the Farm, Inc. official so that the Academy at the Farm, Inc.'s Governing Board may address the conduct before it becomes severe, pervasive, or persistent. Any administrator, supervisor, or other Academy at the Farm, Inc. official who receives such a complaint shall file it with the Academy at the Farm, Inc.'s Compliance Officer or designee within two business days.

Members of the Academy at the Farm, Inc. community or third parties who believe they have been unlawfully harassed by another member of the Academy at the Farm, Inc. community or a third party are entitled to utilize the Academy at the Farm, Inc.'s Governing Board's complaint process that is set forth below. Initiating a complaint, whether formally or informally, will not adversely affect the complainant's employment or participation in educational or extra-curricular programs unless the complainant makes the complaint maliciously or with knowledge that it is false. Individuals should make every effort to file a complaint as soon as possible after the conduct occurs while the facts are known and potential witnesses are available.

If, during an investigation of reported act of bullying and/or harassment the Director or his/her designee believes that the reported misconduct may have created a hostile work environment and may have constituted unlawful discriminatory harassment based on sex, race, color, national origin, religion, or disability, the Director or his/her designee will report the act of bullying and/or harassment to the Compliance Officer who shall investigate the allegation in accordance with this policy.
